

Healthy Homemade Pet Treats & Feeding Guide

Simple recipes, safe ingredient lists, and tummy-friendly feeding tips for happier cats and dogs.

- Easy homemade pet treats
- Safe food quick lists
- Sensitive tummy support tips
- Daily feeding tracker
- Hydration and wellness ideas

Created to help pet parents keep tails wagging and purrs going.

Safe Foods Quick Guide

Safe for Dogs	Never Feed Dogs
• Pumpkin • Blueberries • Carrots • Plain cooked chicken • Eggs • Oatmeal • Peanut butter (xylitol-free)	• Chocolate • Grapes & raisins • Xylitol • Onions & garlic • Macadamia nuts
Safe for Cats	Never Feed Cats
• Cooked chicken • Cooked fish (boneless) • Eggs • Small amounts of plain beef • Fresh water	• Milk • Onions & garlic • Chocolate • Alcohol • Raw dough

Simple Homemade Treat Recipes

Pumpkin Dog Treats

Ingredients: Pumpkin puree, oat flour, egg.

Mix together, shape into small treats, and bake at 350°F for 20–25 minutes.

Tuna Cat Bites

Ingredients: Tuna, egg, oat flour.

Mix and bake small spoonfuls at 350°F until firm.

Frozen Summer Cubes

Ingredients: Low sodium broth, blueberries, water.

Freeze in ice cube trays for cooling summer treats.

Sensitive Tummy Tips

- Transition foods slowly over 7–10 days.
- Offer smaller meals more often if needed.
- Plain pumpkin may help mild digestive upset.
- Keep fresh water available at all times.
- Avoid too many treats in one day.
- Watch for itching, vomiting, gas, or loose stool.
- Speak with your veterinarian for ongoing issues.

Important: Every pet is different. Always consult your veterinarian for personalized advice.

Daily Pet Wellness Tracker

Pet Name	Morning	Afternoon	Evening	Water	Mood/Notes

Consistency, hydration, and healthy nutrition are some of the best gifts you can give your pets.